

AL2467 - The N.S. 'Murvy' Thandray Collection

Call Number: AL2467
Title: The N.S. 'Murvy' Thandray Collection
SubTitle:
Creator: Unknown
Origination:
Inclusive Dates: 1947-1961
Bulk Dates:
Extent: 0.1 linear metre (1 archival box) containing 6 photocopied documents
Language: English
Acquisition: Accession Number: none
Access Restrictions: This collection is open for research
Use Restrictions: Copyright restrictions may apply. See SAHA copyright statement for Use Restrictions.
Copyright: Finding Aid: © The South African History Archive (SAHA)
Abstract: N.S. Thandray was a teacher who later became principal of the Denver Primary School. He was the first to register in the Transvaal as a volunteer for the Passive Resistance Campaign in 1946. As a result, he was forced to resign from his principal's post. He was also imprisoned and later banned for his political activities until his death in 1980.

Introduction

N.S. Thandray was a teacher who later became principal of the Denver Primary School. He was the first to register in the Transvaal as a volunteer for the Passive Resistance Campaign in 1946. As a result, he was forced to resign from his principal's post. He was also imprisoned and later banned for his political activities until his death in 1980.

Notes on the Collection

The collection includes a passive resistance certificate, banning orders imposed on Thandray and a profile by Ahmed Kathrada.

Inventory

- A.: Court Documents
- B.: Miscellaneous Documents