

Mail & Guardian

August 16 to 22 2002 / Vol 18, No 32 / R7,00 in SA / www.mg.co.za
Also available in Kenya / Malawi / Zambia / Mozambique / $150 in Zimbabwe

FRIDAY

No room for ambiguity in Springsteen's new September songs
Page 34

Stronger and fitter superweed invaders?
National Page 3

Bosman's new murder mystery
Comment
Page 30

Regional	17
Rest of the World	20
Leaders	26
Lemmer	28
Body Language	31
Monitor	32
Crosswords	53
Sport	54

'We'll take Sandton!' – summit protesters

The anti-globalisation lobby fired the first public salvo in its war on the World Summit on Sustainable Development at a series of demonstrations on Thursday – and warned it was mobilising for a frontal assault. Florence Nkwashu, below, was among leaders at a Johannesburg demonstration denouncing the impact of globalisation on the poor and the environment. Solidarity protests were organised in London, Washington DC, New York, Toronto and Paris

Page 2

PHOTOGRAPH: NADINE HUTTON