Celebrating Universal Access to Information Day

28 September 2017

09:30- 13:30

Sunny Side Park Hotel, Park Town, Johannesburg

You are cordially invited to celebrate Universal Access to Information Day with the South African Human Rights Commission, Information Regulator and Open Democracy Advice Centre. This event aims to:

- Achieve a better understanding of mandatory compliance obligations in terms of PAIA;
- Understand the importance and benefits of proactive disclosure by both public and private bodies to the public-at-large;

- Establish a multi-stakeholder network for assistance and benchmarking of best practices to improve implementation in the public and private sector; and
- Learn how public and private institutions can integrate access to information and the regulation of personal information in their operational planning.

If you are interested in attending the event (or require more information) then please RSVP no later than 21st September to Tatenda Muranda, Tmuranda@sahrc.org.za.

For Civil Society participants outside of Johannesburg, limited funding support may be available for travel.
